The Code of Civil Procedure (Mysore Amendment) Bill, 1951.

Motion to consider.

The Hon'ble Sri K. T. BHASHYAM (Minister for Law and Labour).—Sir, I move :

"That the Code of Civil Procedure (Mysore Amendment) Bill, 1951, be taken into consideration."

In moving that this be taken into consideration I wish to bring to the notice of the Hon'ble Members the main feature of this Bill. In Mysore we have what is known as a Public Insurance Department and an Official Insurance Department. The Government servants are compelled to insure in the Official Insurance Department. They get some bonus as a result of their insurance. We had in our Code of Civil Procedure an exemption clause preventing the attachment of this bonus because this bonus is meant primarily for the livelihood of the person after he retires or for the dependents of the family if anything happens to the person. Therefore we have exempted it from being attached in execution of any debt owed by this man. Now the Central Code of Civil Procedure would apply to the State. There is no such corresponding clause in the Central Code of Civil Procedure which now prevails in the State. Therefore, at the present moment, any creditor may attach the bonus of any Government servant in respect of this insurance money. We want that this benefit should continue to accrue to the Government servants who are compulsorily made to insure and therefore this Bill is brought forward to amend the Code of Civil Procedure as it now prevails, so that the Government servants may continue to enjoy the benefit of the bonus being exempted HON'BLE SRI K. T. BHASHYAM.) from attachment under any debt; that is the main feature of this Bill. It is non-controversial and I hope all members will be good enough to give their assent to it.

The Mysore Transfer of Property (Extension to Agricultural Land) Bill, 1951.

Motion to consider.

THE HON'BLE SRI K. T. BHASHYAM (Minister for Law and Labour).—Sir, I move :

"That the Mysore Transfer of Property (Extension to Agricultural Land) Bill, 1951, be taken into consideration."

The only point in connection with this Bill is that we had till now the Mysore Transfer of Property Act which dealt with all kinds of property including agricultural lands. The Centre has now extended the Central Transfer of Property Act to Mysore, by reason of which the Transfer of Property Act in Mysore becomes overruled except in respect of agricultural land, because agricultural land is within the jurisdiction of the State and therefore the Central Law would not apply to it. What happens now is that the Central Transfer of Property Act applies to Mysore in respect of all property except agricultural land. Agricultural land will continue to be governed by the old Mysore Transfer of Property Act. But there are some advantages to be gained by the Central Transfer of Property Act being extended to agricultural land also. Therefore we propose that agricultural land also may form part of the property to be governed by the Central Transfer of Property Act. The Central Parliament could not make a law including agricultural land because it is within our jurisdiction to do so. Therefore we have brought forward this Blll and we say that immoveable property as defined in the Transfer of Property Act as it now prevails includes agricultural lands also. This is the simple provision behind this amendment.

We had issued an Ordinance because the Central Transfer of Property Act came into force from the first of October 1951 and the Assembly was not sitting and the matter was one of urgency.
